Attempted Homicide

On 2/1, officers responded to the 3700 block of Adams Ave regarding an assault with a deadly weapon. The victim's wife (subject) struck him in the back of the head with a wrench after luring him into the bathroom under false pretenses. The victim had extensive injuries and was immediately transported for medical care. Officers contacted the family members inside the house and convinced them to evacuate the residence. After some negotiation, the subject exited the house, and officers arrested her. Officers discovered that the assault was premeditated. The victim sustained non-life-threatening injuries. #240201010

Battery on a Custodial Officer

On 1/31, officers responded to a call regarding a subject yelling and refusing to leave a café on Mowry Ave. The subject was also reported as carrying a slingshot and firearm. The subject was in a nearby pharmacy when officers arrived and detained him without incident. The gun in question appeared to be a toy dart gun. Officers discovered an outstanding warrant and arrested the subject. #240131033

Domestic Violence

On 1/31, officers responded to a report of domestic battery at a residence on Palo Verde Common. During an argument, the subject punched the victim in the face and struck her with a metal water bottle. Officers arrested the subject and obtained an emergency protective order for the victim and her juvenile daughter. #240131035

On 2/5, officers responded to multiple reports of screaming at a residence on Central Ave. One subject was screaming that he was going to kill someone. The responding officer determined that misdemeanor domestic violence had occurred and arrested the subject. #240205002

Grand Theft

On 2/2, a victim reported that two subjects had robbed him at his home near Central Ave and Teakwood Dr. The victim was meeting with one subject to sell phones when the subject ran away with the phones. Another subject joined the subject, who also began running as the victim chased them both. An officer in the area located the subjects on Deadwood Dr and held them at the scene until units arrived to arrest them. Officers arrested the subject, who had taken the phones from the victim initially. The victim's loss was recovered and returned to him. #240202037

Fremont Police Week In Review

January 30, 2024 - February 5, 2024

Mental Health Hold

On 2/4, officers responded to multiple calls regarding a subject in a wheelchair who was pushing herself backward into oncoming traffic near Fremont Blvd and Abbey Tr. She appeared confused and could not give a coherent reason for going in and out of traffic. She was transported to a local hospital for a mental health assessment. #240204012

Misappropriation of Lost Property

On 2/5, officers responded to a report of a subject waving what appeared to be a firearm in the parking lot of a drugstore on Mission Blvd and Warm Springs Blvd. They found the subject lying on the ground, holding a piece of bent metal that resembled a firearm, not an actual firearm. The subject also had drug paraphernalia and another person's driver's license with him. He was arrested. #240205019

Robbery

On 1/30, a victim interrupted three subjects stealing tools from his work truck at Seal Rock Ter. As he attempted to pull one of the subjects out of the vehicle, the other two subjects pointed guns at him. The subjects fled in a stolen vehicle. This case remains under investigation. #240131004

On 2/2, security at a grocery store near Mission Blvd and Warm Springs Blvd attempted to stop a shoplifter as she was stealing items from the store. The subject battered the security guard, attempted to burn him with a mini-torch, and headbutted him. Officers arrested the subject, and the security guard was transported to the hospital. #240202039

On 2/4, officers responded to a report of a robbery at Sequoia Rd and Paseo Padre Pkwy. Two victims were walking down the street when four subjects exited a vehicle, battered the victims, and robbed them of their purses and wallet. This case remains under investigation. #240204002

On 2/5, an employee at a drugstore on Decoto Rd reported that a subject had taken merchandise without paying. The employee attempted to take the merchandise back from the subject, but he lunged at her and threatened to bite her. Upon arrival, the responding officer saw the subject exiting the store and, after the employee positively identified (the subject), was arrested. #240205029
